MOST REV. EDWARD F. HOBAN
S.T.D., Ph.D., LL.D.

The Diocese of Cleveland has been bountifully blessed with three outstanding religious leaders whose provident guidance is manifest in their solicitous interest in both the spiritual and material welfare of their people.

Diocesan education, in particular, illustrates the thorough and prudent planning of these administrators. The Diocesan Board of Education is the second largest in the State of Ohio, and it is possible for almost every Catholic elementary and high school student to receive the Catholic education which is his right.

On the college level John Carroll University has played a large role in the Diocesan planning, and these religious leaders have regularly and generously assisted the University in its work.

The 1956 Carillon pays tribute to these leaders. To the Most Rev. Edward F. Hoban, Archbishop-Bishop of Cleveland, and to the Most Rev. Floyd L. Begin, and the Most Rev. John J. Krol, Auxiliary Bishops, we extend our greetings and our gratitude.

VERY REV. FREDERICK E. WELFLE, S.J.
A.M., Ph.D.
PRESIDENT

OVER four centuries ago the intrepid Inigo de Loyola founded the Society of Jesus. Educator, soldier of Christ, spiritual architect, holy founder: his successors have militantly and zealously furthered Ignatius' determination to do all things: Ad maiorem Dei gloriam.

At John Carroll the phenomenal growth of the University in the Ignatian tradition and the consequent spread of Ignatian influence have reached a peak during the last decade. And it is no accidental consequence that this growth has coincided with the tenure of our President, the Rev. Frederick E. Welfle, S.J.

Father Welfle came to the President's office in 1946, a most difficult and trying time for a college administrator. Father Welfle's first full-time civilian student body totalled 150 men. At this same time the obligations of the University had risen to over half a million dollars.

Fortified by vision, faith, and courage, the heritage of his Jesuit training, Father Welfle undertook to build, not alone in the physical sense, but in the spiritual as well, a University worthy of the best Jesuit traditions.

He inspired his colleagues, lay and Jesuit, with the same zeal and enthusiasm; from the Cleveland community he secured from scores of men and women pledges of assistance, financial and moral. He created Carroll's first Lay Board of Trustees; he brought to the campus outstanding educators and leaders for special institutes and lectures; and he added to the faculty men outstanding in their fields. An eminent personage in civic circles, he became a familiar figure at the head table of gatherings in the Cleveland area.

As Father Welfle reviews ten years of service he can see, as we do, the developing campus, the expanded student body, the growing corps of professors, the enlarged course offerings, the maturity of John Carroll as a community asset; but above all he can be proud of the realization that Carroll is producing, as never before, leaders of men.

To Father Welfle, for his courage in the adversities of the Past, his faith in John Carroll's Future, and his devotion to its Present, we gratefully and proudly dedicate the 1956 Carillon.

in memoriam

Mrs. Thomas F. Dolan

" . . . They who have fallen asleep with godliness have great grace laid up for them . . . "

—2 Mach. 12, 45

When Mrs. Thomas Dolan was called to her eternal rest on February 4 the University suffered the loss of a patron, a benefactor, and an ardent advocate.

That she was a woman of broad propensities for benevolent humanitarianism is manifested not only by her interest in John Carroll, but also by her service to the numerous charitable organizations which benefited from her zeal. In particular she was active in the Catherine Horstman Home Society, she was a Patron of Parmadale, and she was devoted to De Paul Infant Home.

Dolan Hall, dedicated last September in her honor and that of her husband, Thomas F. Dolan, stands in abiding tribute to her generosity, in enduring memory of her name.

Happy royalty:
King John Broderick,
Queen Loretta Heip.

Three happy couples are Jan Tifft, Julius Sabo, Joe Lipocky, Ruth Lakner, Jeanette Peterka, and Ray Purgert.

Anything in FM 22-5 to cover proper maneuvers in this situation, Colonel?

The evening's festivities are still ahead for early arrivals Phil Grushetsky and Barbara Lechlak. Following them in are Bill Norkett and Mary O'Brien.

Chairman Ray Reilly waits for the royalty to make its way through the assembled throng for the crowning.

Jim Schempp and Judy Patton aren't too sure the joke's not on them. What doesn't appear is the former's introduction of a new style for college proms—popular in Bermuda!

Hotel Statler was the scene of the 1956 Senior Prom, April 28. Ray McKinley and his Orchestra provided the music for the 338 dancing couples and their honored guests.

Phyllis Lally, Maureen DeWine, Dick Murphy, Russ Carlyle, Queen Edwina Cowie, Gail Sharpe, and Mary Jo Mills sing the Carroll Alma Mater.

Part of the throng which jammed Hotel Hollenden.

Queen Edwina ascends the stage to a royal welcome from Mary Jo Mills, Bill Schmidt, and Joe Cunningham.

Intermissioning are Ed Ostendorf, Louise Szalay, Phil Gordon, Mary Jane Bruebach, and Jerry Dorsch.

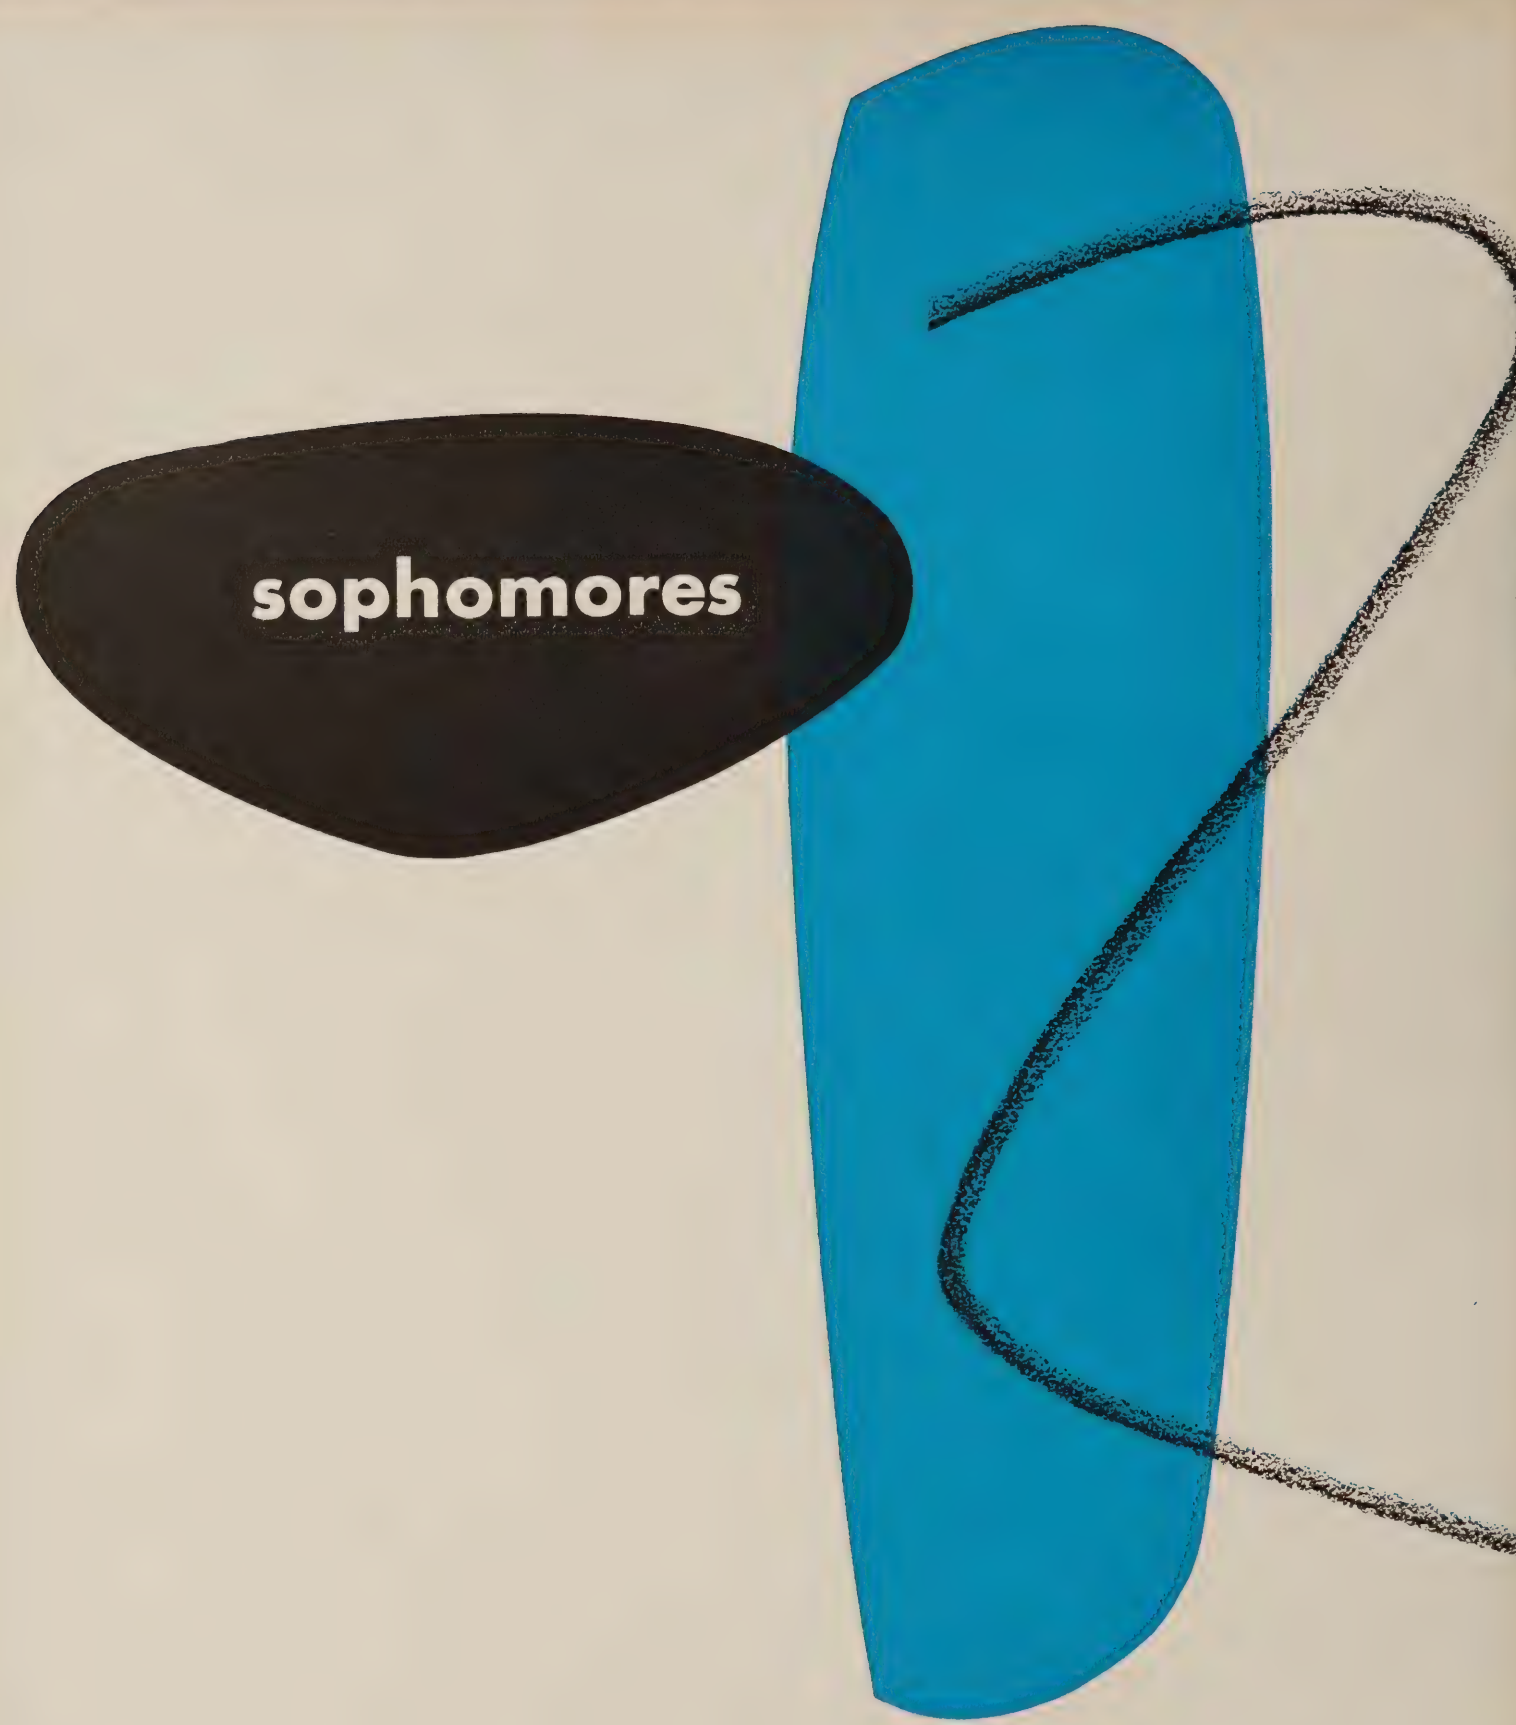

No wonder they're happy!
 "Best dance ever!" was the comment that brought happy smiles to the faces of Junior Class President Dick Murphy and his guest Evelyn Petrangelo.

Queen Edwina Cowie and her escort, Tom Wilson

Janice Friery and Hank Henteman take time out from the festivities for a photograph.

More than 300 couples jammed the Auditorium at the Sophomore class annual Hallowe'en Hard Times Dance. The usual Harvest motif was featured in the decorating scheme, complete with corn stalks and pumpkins, and country-style cider and doughnuts refreshments were served. The Campus Concertmasters, the Chipreans, provided the dance tempos.

The Auditorium was jammed by people attired in every conceivable type of hard times garb.

Mike Aquaviva "upstages" vocalist Bob Chiprean.

The Chipreans entertain the crowd with a dance - stopping specialty number.

Can it be Mr. Peepers?

Herb Eisele, Head Coach

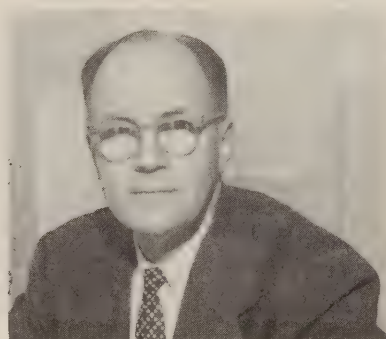

In Praise of Mr. Two

Everybody likes a winner. And there are always fans who are ready to cheer for a good loser. But whoever praised a team that came in second? So this is in praise of the almost-winner, the nearly-champions. This is in praise of Mr. Two.

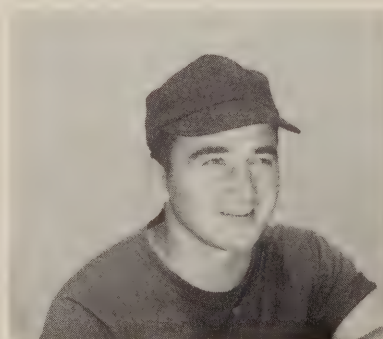

Ask the winner of any race how good a competitor is Mr. Two. Ask Western Reserve, the first PAC Champion, how good a team was John Carroll. The Red Cats will tell you that it was John Carroll, pressing at their heels and threatening to overtake and pass them that made Reserve strive so determinedly to win. It was Mr. Two that made the PAC race so close.

High-spirited, but inexperienced; fast, but small in both size and numbers, the Blue Streaks were an unknown quantity even to their coaches.

So this is for you, Blue Streaks. This is for you, Mr. Two. This is for all the days that you tried for first, but came in second. This is for all the times you thought nobody noticed. We noticed, Mr. Two. We know the score. Winner or not, you are Our Champions!

The following players received special mention for their standout performances:

Tackle Leo Collins — All-PAC
 Center Don Grace — All-PAC
 Tackle Morris Patarini — All-PAC
 Guard Jim Pipino — All-PAC
 Fullback Mike Torrelli — All-PAC

JOHN CARROLL 0—BOWLING GREEN 30

The Blue Streaks were overmatched against a non-conference opponent in the opener. The Falcons, with three victories to their credit, were held to a safety in the first period, but scored twice in the second quarter to take a 16-0 half-time lead.

Falcon coaches told Carroll Coach Eisele that it was "unbelievable" that the Streaks had acquired such know-how after three short weeks of training.

JOHN CARROLL 44—WAYNE 25

Stunned when their foe returned the opening kickoff 84 yards for a touchdown, the Blue Streaks stormed back to roll over Wayne University 44-25 in their first PAC game.

Fullback Mike Torrelli scored three times. Others who hit pay dirt were Leo DiValentino, Jack Fialko, and "Cookie" Pokorski.

JOHN CARROLL 32—EDINBORO STATE 0

John Carroll's Homecoming game was a joyful occasion as the Streaks struck for three touchdowns in the first seven minutes of play and coasted to an easy victory. Quarterback Sam Frontino and Halfback Leo DiValentino spearheaded the Carroll attack. Frontino threw three scoring passes and DiValentino scored two touchdowns and one extra point.

JOHN CARROLL 21—CASE TECH 6

The Streaks capitalized on two breaks to score twice in the final period and so hand a stubborn Case Tech squad a 21-6 setback before 2000 fans at Clarke Field.

A bad pass from center set up the first of the last quarter scores, and the second resulted from a clever bit of legal thievery by Frank Singel. The Carroll End stole the ball from Case Quarterback Walt Pavlick and shuffled it off to Center Don Grace who raced 56 yards for the score.

JOHN CARROLL 7—RESERVE 19

Breaking things wide open with two quick touchdowns in the fourth quarter, Western Reserve celebrated its Homecoming by turning back the Blue Streaks, 19-7, in their first football meeting since 1946.

The two teams battled on even terms for three quarters before a crowd of 7500, but the Red Cats drove to the Carroll 1-yard line as the third quarter ended. The final period fireworks wrapped up a Reserve victory. Sam Frontino connected on a 15-yard aerial to Jack Fialko for Carroll's touchdown.

JOHN CARROLL 0—CASE TECH 6

For the first time since 1941 an underdog Case Tech football team defeated the Blue Streaks in the season finale. Carroll had several scoring opportunities throughout the game but failed to capitalize on any. Walt Pavlick passed to John Budko for the Case touchdown.

JCU 26—WRU 2

Rev. Owen J. Englum, S.J., presents William Marks of Detroit with the John D. Connors Trophy awarded annually to the outstanding Freshman Football player.

In the season opener against Case Tech playing conditions were so bad that at times it was impossible to tell who was on what team, as in this photograph.

The freshmen had scarcely finished registration before the athletes among them were checking out helmets and shoulder pads and climbing the hill behind the gymnasium for their first football practice at JCU. Eighty-four eager candidates represented the largest turnout in the University's history.

Besides capturing the first PAC Freshman crown the yearlings were undefeated in three games, yielding only a safety. On a day when playing conditions were so poor that players found it almost impossible to gain yardage, the Freshmen pushed over one score to defeat Case 6-0. Next, a trip to Detroit resulted in a whitewash victory over Wayne, 13-0.

Still unscored upon, the Frosh entered the Reserve game with nothing but revenge on their minds for what the Red Cats had done to the varsity. The Carroll Freshman won 26-2.

The leading scorer was Halfback Jack Toronski who tallied in all three games. Tom McCarthy, Frank Walton, and Bill Marks, winner of the John D. Connors trophy, completed the backfield. Manning the forward wall on offense were Jack Cregan and Jack Hyland, ends; Jerry Porter and John Schlegel, tackles; Gene Morgan and Bill Burian, guards; Lee Matthews, center.

The two-platoon system afforded many players the opportunities to demonstrate their talents. The defensive standouts were Toronski, Walton, Marks, Dan Stringer, Hyland, Porter, Morgan, and Jim Iiovanazzo.

Even the bench area was flooded!

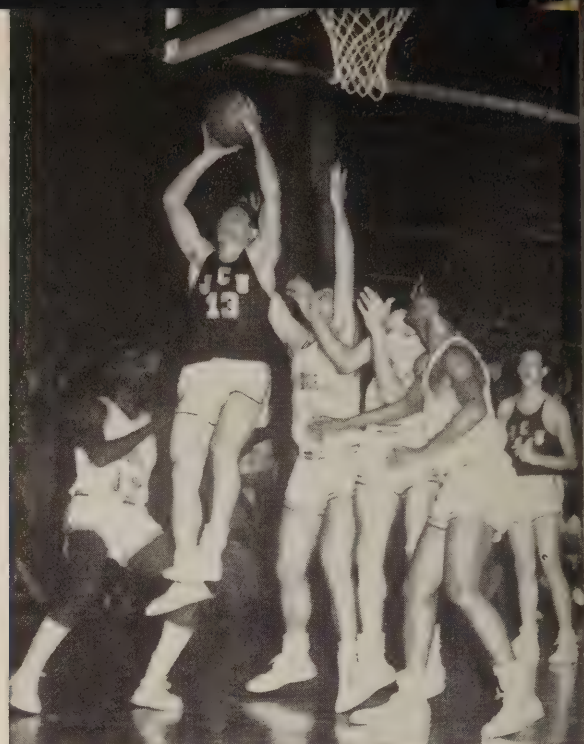

Bill Marks switches from his usual running game to hurl a long one as a Western Reserve player desperately attempts to stop him.

varsity basketball

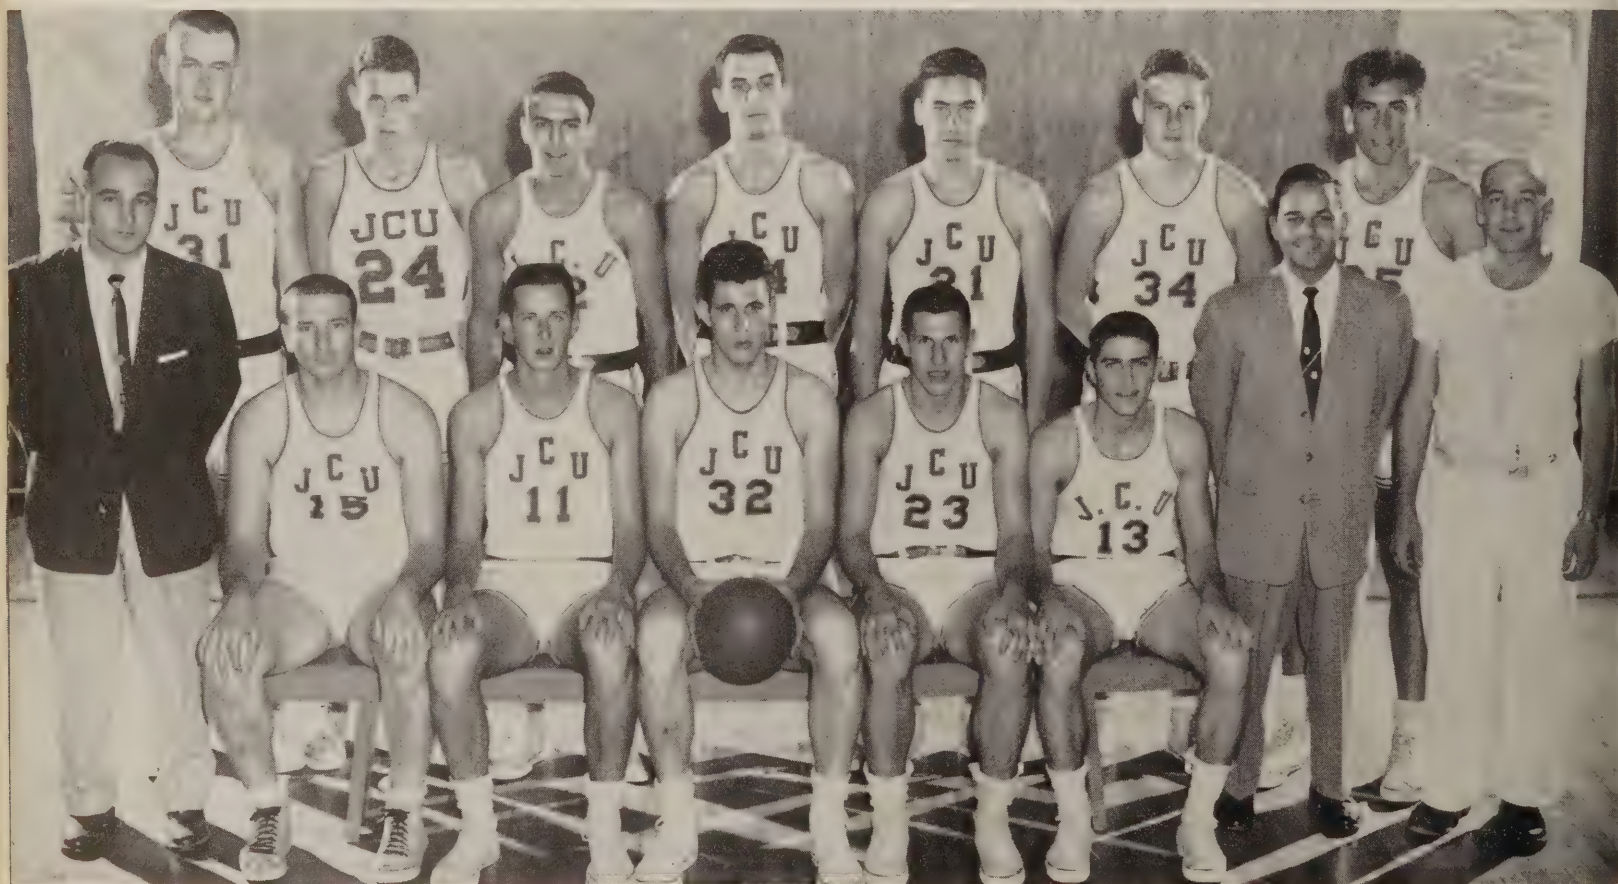

Compiling an overall record of 11 wins and seven losses, and a Conference mark of four victories and two defeats the Blue Streaks' basketball squad emulated the football team and came in second in the race for the PAC crown.

Coach Cornachione's hardwooders played fast, exciting basketball in the course of which six school records were broken. That the team was well-balanced is attested to by the fact that all five members of the starting lineup averaged in double figures when final statistics were released.

Three seniors played their last season for Carroll: Paul Schlimm and Joe Lechlak, forwards, and Bob Eckert, center.

JCU 76 STEUBENVILLE 91

Displaying a balance of speed, height, and shooting accuracy the Steubenville College basketball team ruined the season opener by defeating Carroll 91-76 at Shaw Fieldhouse. John Stavole, sophomore guard from Cleveland St. Ignatius, led the scoring with 19 points. Paul Schlimm and Bob Eckert scored 15 and 12 points respectively.

JCU 91 CASE 58

In the PAC opener Carroll trounced Case Tech 91-58 at Cathedral Latin Gym. Bearing out Coach Cornachione's pre-season predictions the George Dalton-less Streaks displayed a balanced scoring punch as all five starters hit for double figures. Bob Eckert was top man with 17. Schlimm, Lechlak, and Volbert all netted 15, Frank Humenik scored 11, and John Stavole 10.

JCU 117 BLISS 51

The Blue Streaks had little more than a workout at Shaw as they breezed past Bliss College 117-51 to even the season record. The 117 points were a new school record as were the 49 field goals. Paul Schlimm enjoyed his biggest night of the young season, sinking 11 of 15 field goal attempts and 11 of 13 free throws for 33 points. Frank Humenik followed with 20, John Stavole with 17, Joe Lechlak with 14, and Len Volbert with 12.

Long Bob Eckert took command in the second half to lead the Streaks to an 88-64 victory over Western Reserve in a PAC game at Adelbert gym. Eckert's 27 rebounds established a new school record and gave Carroll control of the boards. In addition to his rebounding Eckert led the scoring with 26. Paul Schlimm scored 20 and Len Volbert 15.

JCU 96 YOUNGSTOWN 84

Paced by Paul Schlimm's 30 points the Blue Streaks made it three straight victories by upsetting Youngstown College 96-84 at Shaw. Close behind Schlimm in scoring was Joe Lechlak with 26 points. Len Volbert scored 18 and Frank Humenik 12.

The prospective rebounders against Kent are Frank Humenik and Joe Lechlak.

JCU 96 SLIPPERY ROCK 58

Showing no ill effects from a three-week layoff the Blue Streaks made it a Happy New Year by downing Slippery Rock College 96-58 at Shaw. The victory raised Carroll's game average to 94 points—enough to rank them fourth nationally, among small colleges, in offense. Joe Lechlak and Frank Humenik tied for scoring honors with 18 points each.

JCU 69 KENT STATE 76

A last quarter scoring surge enabled Kent State's cagers to nip the Blue Streaks 76-69 on the winner's court. Paul Schlimm led Carroll's scoring with 15 points and Frank Humenik chipped in 14.

JCU 119 FENN 62

The high-scoring Blue Streaks set a new school record at the expense of Fenn College as they romped over the Foxes 119-62 at Shaw. Eight players hit double figures as all 12 squad members got into the scoring act. Joe Lechlak led the parade with 20.

JCU 96 GANNON 85

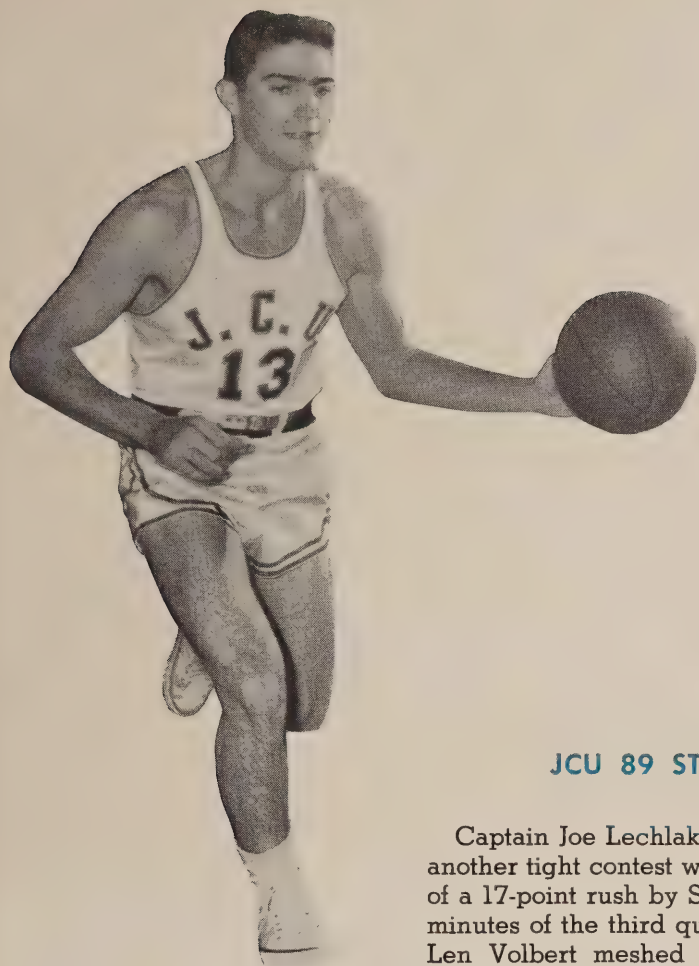

The Blue Streaks had to hustle all the way to down an aggressive, sharp-shooting Gannon College quintet 96-85 at Shaw. Showing the ill effects of a three-week layoff Carroll needed the last period surge sparked by Len Volbert and Joe Lechlak to pull away from the Pennsylvanians. Scoring honors went to Lechlak who netted 23.

JCU 81 ST. VINCENT 90

Forward Paul Schlimm again led the team scoring as he netted 34 points in a 90-81 loss at St. Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa. Len Volbert scored 15, Frank Humenik 11 in a game that was hotly contested until the Bearcats pulled away in the waning minutes.

JCU 89 ST. FRANCIS 93

Captain Joe Lechlak contributed 33 points in another tight contest which Carroll lost because of a 17-point rush by St. Francis in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Paul Schlimm and Len Volbert meshed 18 and 17 markers, respectively.

JCU 115 WESTERN RESERVE 84

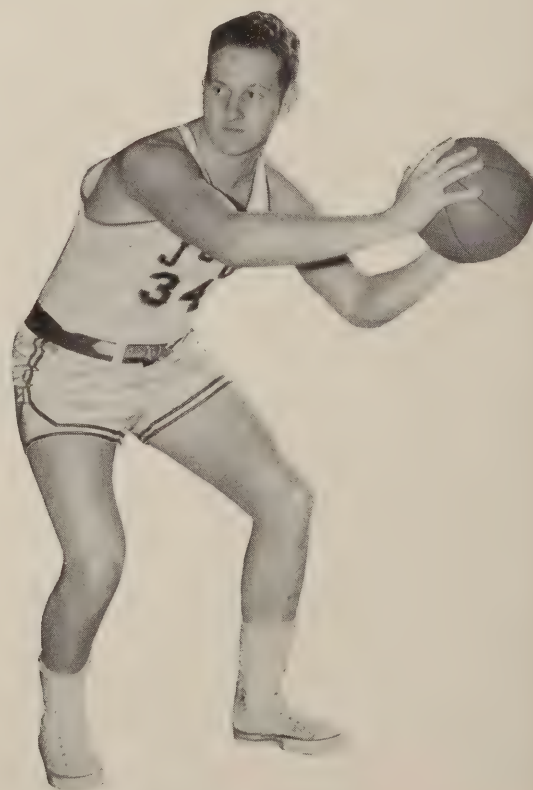

Hitting the century mark for the fourth time Carroll buried Reserve 115-84 at Shaw. Once again the entire team scored, and once again Paul Schlimm led with 26 points. Joe Lechlak netted 20.

JCU 79 VALPARAISO 81

The Blue Streaks dropped an 81-79 overtime decision to Valparaiso on the winner's court. Bob Eckert was responsible for sending the game into the extra period with a hook shot which tied the score when only ten seconds of play remained. Joe Lechlak topped the Streak scorers with 25 points.

Frank Humenik put on one of his fancy dribbling exhibitions to run out the clock. Schlimm scored a total of 20 points. Len Volbert netted 19.

JCU 80 WAYNE 88

PAC Champion, Wayne University successfully froze the ball for the last three minutes to register its sixteenth consecutive triumph, 88-80. Paul Schlimm scored 31 points and finished the season as the leading scorer in the PAC. Len Volbert had 18 points and Frank Humenik 15.

If freshman hardwood teams are any indication of things to come then the PAC had better be alerted for the Carroll freshmen. The yearlings compiled a 6-2 record for the season and won the Conference crown with an amazing six victories and no defeats, burying all their rivals with only Western Reserve coming close to beating them. Only losses for the frosh quintet were administered by Kent State, 77-74 at Kent and 90-81 at Shaw.

Individual scoring honor for the season went to guard Paul Stricharczuk who collected 132 points in eight games. Captain Gary Furin netted 126 markers and was top rebound man, grabbing 105.

The team's playmaker, guard Dick Krebs, scored 119 points during the campaign, and center Jim Kenealy meshed 84.

Coach Carl Torch paid tribute enthusiastically to the desire of his players and to their relentless efforts for self-improvement.

pi delta epsilon

Pi Delta Epsilon, the national honorary journalism fraternity, picks its members from the three University publications on the basis of loyalty and service. This year the Carroll chapter took part in Open House and hosted the Diocesan Scholastic Press Association convention on Ascension Thursday. In addition, it sponsored the annual Publications Banquet in May.

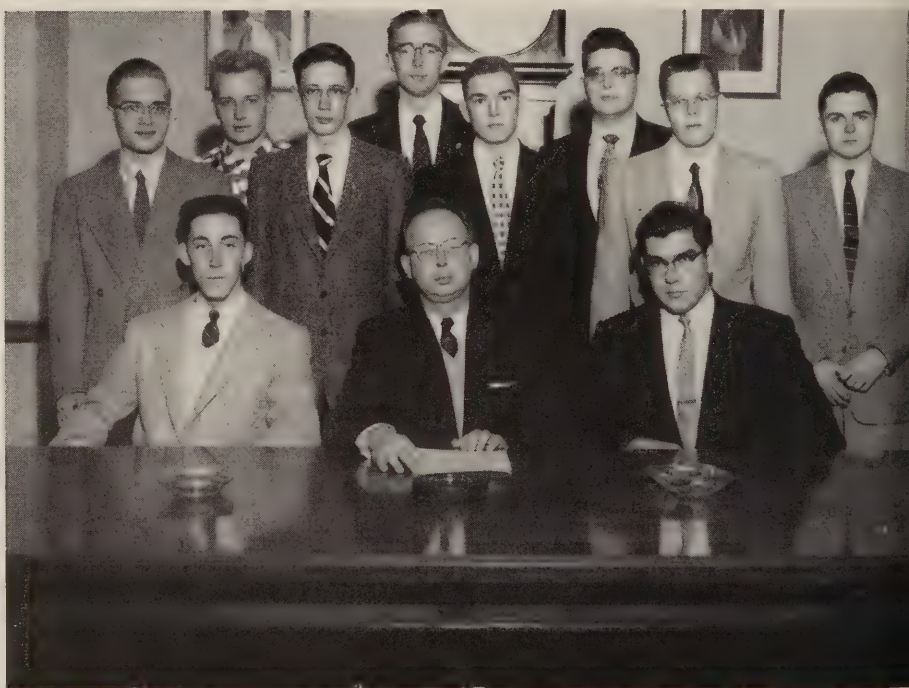

Frank Tesch was president of the group, while Raymond Reilly and Edward Bresnan were vice president and secretary respectively. Dr. Richard J. Spath is PDE moderator.

This year's varsity debate team, composed largely of freshmen, got off to a successful start by placing first in the Ohio State University and Pittsburgh University Invitational Tournaments as well as in the Northeastern Ohio Regional Tournament. Second place honors were garnered in both the Buckeye Regional and Tau Kappa Alpha tourneys.

A state-wide tournament, the Ohio State Novice, was held at Carroll in April. It was the first such event to be held on campus in the history of the school.

Officers for the 1955-56 school year were: John Robertson, president; David Davis, vice president; and James Donahue, secretary. Mr. Vincent S. Klein is moderator of the group.

More than just another organization, the Sodality is a complete way of life. In keeping with this idea, the Sodality carried on a full-scale program of apostolic, as well as social activities, by which to accomplish its goals of self-sanctification, sanctification of neighbor, and defense of the Church.

Sodality projects this year included the Christmas basket drive, Christmas card sales, the Carroll Lenten Mass Club, the spring Mission Drive, the Leadership Retreat, and the Anthesterion Dance. This work was handled through the group's apostolic, interior life, students' spiritual program, social action, and public relations committees.

Prefect George Biltz was assisted by vice prefect Emmett Walsh, secretary Anton Bouhassin, and secretary Leonard Belmonte. Rev. James J. McQuade, S.J. is the Sodality director, and Rev. Joseph O. Schell, S.J. is moderator of the group.

future teachers of america

The Future Teachers of America chapter at Carroll was organized just last year and has as its objective the fostering of teachers' vocations at the University. Students who plan to enter the teaching field are encouraged to meet together and discuss the educational problems facing America. Activities during the past school year included lectures by guest speakers on various phases of education, discussions of opportunities open to prospective teachers, and an "Education Day" program for high school students from the Cleveland area who plan to enter the teaching field. Rev. Joseph P. Owens, S.J. is moderator of the group.

The Institute of Industrial Relations enables Carroll students to examine the intricate problems of labor and management under the guidance of the papal encyclicals Rerum Novarum of Pope Leo XIII and Quadragesimo Anno of Pope Pius XI.

The organization's chief projects for the school year 1955-56 included field trips to Ford Motor Company and General Motors Corporation's Fisher Body Division. Discussion periods, guest speakers, research with respect to automation, and labor-management films comprised the bulk of the group's on-campus activities.

Club officers were: John Meyers, president; Robert Gonnella, vice president; Raymond McGuinness, secretary; Frank King, treasurer. Moderator was Mr. John J. Connelly.

glee club

One more time!

The John Carroll University Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Jack T. Hearn, presented two campus concerts this year as well as a special "preview" concert under the auspices of the Evening Division. The 90-voice group also traveled to River Forest, Illinois to present a concert in conjunction with the Glee Club of Rosary College for Women.

John Cornely was president; Michael Benson was vice president; and Robert Chiprean and John Rae shared the secretarial duties. Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J. is moderator of the Glee Club.

During the 1955-56 school year the IRE sponsored a number of field trips to various industrial concerns as well as lectures by guest speakers from the industrial world. Two wiener roasts, a hayride, a picnic and the annual IRE banquet completed the social side of the group's activities.

Thomas Dambach was honored as the outstanding senior by the Cleveland Institute of Radio Engineers and Joseph Kost was named as the organization's outstanding member.

Officers were: Thomas Dambach, chairman; William Gilroy, vice chairman; James McAuley, secretary; and Michael Wedding, treasurer. Dr. Joseph L. Hunter is IRE moderator.

international relations club

The International Relations club concerned itself this year with a discussion of foreign policy, dividing the material into two general semester topics. During the first semester, club members considered "Africa and the Middle East." Second semester deliberations revolved about "Asia, South America, and World Conflict."

Club officers were Harvey Harth, president; Edward Daugherty, vice president. Moderator of the organization was Rev. Howard J. Kerner, S.J.

Carroll's role as host to the 13th National Congress of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, to be held here in September, is now being mapped out under the direction of arrangements committee co-chairmen Jack Cornely and Frank Paulovich. Joseph Sedlock, junior delegate from Carroll, will serve as general chairman of the Congress.

Senior delegate for the 1955-56 school year was Tom O'Connell, while Dave Ball shared junior delegate duties with Sedlock. James Ritchie, with Paulovich, served as co-chairman of the National Social Service Commission and Patrick O'Reilly was regional chairman. Carroll's Social Service Club was headed by Carl Acker.

confraternity of christian doctrine

Now in its second year of existence on campus, the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine is devoted to teaching and explaining the Catholic Faith in various Northern Ohio institutions. As the result of an intensive membership drive, the organization this year was able to enlist many new volunteers to teach and counsel at the County Detention Home, the County Workhouse, Hudson Boys' Farm, and Highland View Hospital.

The group was directed in its activities by: Robert DuBrul, president; Alvin DeMeo, vice president; Frank Kenny, secretary; William Schmidt, treasurer; John Stain, teacher-chairman; Thomas Norton, discussion chairman; and Charles Farrell, helper-chairman.

The year 1955-56 was one of re-birth for the Philosophy Club. In addition to a series of discussions on St. Thomas' De Anima, the club sponsored a number of talks concerning various philosophical views on the soul which were open to the student body. "Aquinas Day" was observed March 7, the saint's feast, with a Mass, several panel discussions, and lectures on Thomism.

Officers for the year were: Vincent Punzo, president, and Tim Sweeney, secretary. Mr. Charles A. Visgak is moderator.

One of the more active organizations on campus, the Scabbard and Blade undertook as its prime project a Carroll Blood Bank by conducting twin blood drives, one each semester, in conjunction with the American Red Cross.

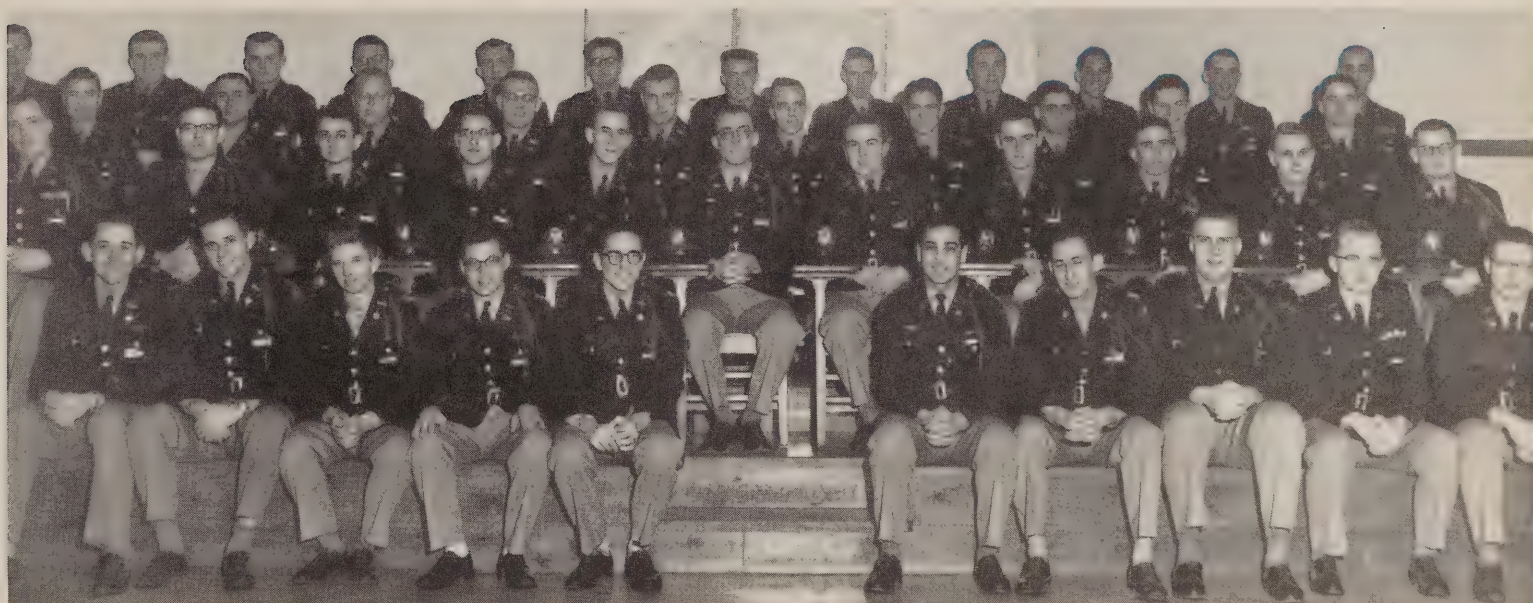

A liaison between the Military Science Department and the student body, the group held numerous social activities on and off campus, and also co-sponsored the sixth annual Military Ball, at which over 600 couples danced to the music of Eddie Grady and the Commanders.

Major Ideal M. Calvanese was moderator of the organization, and officers were: Vincent Punzo, president; Carl Monastra, vice president; Thomas O'Connell, secretary; and Thomas Tremper, treasurer.

spanish club

To augment its pre-lenten Mardi Gras Dance, sponsored in conjunction with the modern languages department and the other modern language clubs, the Spanish Club this year held a dinner-dance, mixers, and presented a series of lectures by guest speakers. An added attraction was the presentation of the movie, "Locura de Amor," the story of the mad queen, Juana, of Spain.

John Robertson was president of the group; Robert Nix was vice president; and Timothy Hoy filled the post of secretary-treasurer. Mr. Luis Soto-Ruiz is the Spanish Club moderator.

I have always felt there is one place in which the nation and the individual can afford to be extravagant, and that is in education.

Whatever the cost of education may be, it can never be as great as the cost of ignorance.

The stability of the United States, economically and politically, is dependent on an educated citizenship not only in theory but in fact.

Success

depends on a good beginning

Your first position will have a lasting effect on the direction and progress of your entire career.

In most cases success comes to the graduate who consciously seeks the occupational environment best suited to his individual talents and training.

We can assist you in the search for that special niche. Our experience and services are at your disposal—for a good beginning.
